

SAH APT REVIEW: INDIVIDUAL WORKSHEET

APPLICANT: _____

DEPT.: _____

Research/Scholarly Performance	Teaching Performance	Service Performance
Instructor/Assistant Professor
Instructor holds a Bachelor's or Master's degree. Asst. Professor holds at least an earned Master's degree. Engages in dissertation or other research activities. Produces on the average, one scholarly publication in refereed journals every three years.* Develops area(s) of acknowledged expertise appropriate to specialty. Makes at least one scholarly presentation at state and/or national meetings every three years. Maintains continuing technical/scientific/clinical competence as appropriate. additional Dept. Criteria:	Assumes primary responsibility for course management in classroom and/or clinical courses. Demonstrates teaching excellence through peer/mentor evaluation and student evaluation if prior teaching experience. If the opportunity is available in the program, serves as committee member on research projects/thesis/dissertations and provides supervision for student research	Serves as member on standing department, school, medical center or university committee. Maintains membership in professional organization and attendance at professional meetings at the local, state, or national level. Takes part in providing professional/continuing education programs at local meetings. Collaborates or consults with local providers (agencies, hospitals, clinics, non-profit agencies, etc.) appropriate to the professional discipline. Works with administrators, faculty and students in furthering the mission and goals of the university, medical center, school and department.
Associate Professor
Holds at least an earned Master's degree. Produces on the average, at least one scholarly publication every year in refereed journals. * Recognized regionally for some area of expertise. Makes, on average, at least one scholarly presentation a year at state and national meetings. Applies for external funding for support of research/scholarly activities. Maintains continuing technical/scientific/clinical competence as appropriate. additional Dept. Criteria:	Provides leadership in course development and implementation and participates in curriculum development. If the opportunity is available in the program, serves as committee member on research projects/thesis/dissertations and provides supervision for student research. Supervises students for independent studies, special projects, honor's activities (non-research), etc. Demonstrates teaching excellence through peer and student evaluation. Develops innovative, effective teaching materials or approaches.	Demonstrates emergent leadership on department, school, medical center or university committees. Provides leadership in professional organization(s) at the local, state, regional, national, or international levels. Takes part in providing professional/continuing education programs at state or regional settings. Collaborates or consults with local/regional providers (agencies, hospitals, clinics, non-profit agencies, etc.) appropriate to the discipline. Works with administrators, faculty and students in furthering the mission and goals of the university, medical center, school and department.
Professor
Holds an earned doctorate. Has developed a scholarly focus. Publishes on the average more than one scholarly publication per year (e.g., 6 in 5 years) in refereed journals. * Recognized nationally and/or internationally in some area of expertise. Makes, on average, at least one scholarly presentation a year at national/international professional meetings. Applies for external funding for scholarly/research activities Maintains continuing technical/scientific/clinical competence as appropriate. additional Dept. Criteria:	Provides leadership in course development and implementation and curriculum development. If the opportunity is available in the program, chairs or provides leadership on graduate research projects/thesis/dissertations and supervises student research activities. Supervises students for independent studies, special projects, honor activities (non-research). Demonstrates teaching excellence through peer and student evaluation. Develops and implements innovative, effective teaching materials or approaches. Serves as mentor to faculty members.	Demonstrates exemplary leadership on department, school, medical center or university committees. Continues previous activities within professional organizations with emphasis shifting to leadership roles at the regional, national or international levels. Provides professional/continuing education programs at state, regional, national, international meetings. Collaborates or consults with local/regional/national providers (agencies, hospitals, clinics, non-profit agencies, etc.) appropriate to professional discipline. Serves as an external reviewer for manuscripts or grants. Works with administrators, faculty and students in furthering the mission and goals of the university, medical center, school and department.